PAR-FRIED PERFORMS.

Par-fried chicken while still uncooked, has been breaded and flash fried for a short time to ensure the breading stays in place and optimum color is achieved. This provides a consistent looking, finished product. Par-fried chicken is best prepared in a fryer and cooked until the product reaches an internal temperature of 165°F. Tyson® and Tyson Red Label® par-fried chicken products help ensure consistent, even cooking. Guests can look forward to delicious meals while operators take advantage of minimal prep time. Their advantages are clear in food quality and functionality and offer operators a key piece to the menu-planning puzzle.

THE BENEFITS OF PAR-FRIED CHICKEN

EFFICIENCY

Easy

SIMPLE PREP

- Products are easy to handle and prepare—perfect for high demand, fast-paced operation

LESS MESS

- Compared to back-of-house breaded, par-fry does not require a breading station for prep or multiple ingredients for battering

CONSISTENT PERFORMANCE

- Consistent shape, quality & cook times

LESS STORAGE PREP REQUIRED

- No need for extensive wrapping, labeling and dating

COST SAVINGS

LABOR SAVINGS

- Product requires less training—place in fryer, set timer & cook. No specialty culinary skills required

LESS WASTE

- Use only the amount of product needed, when you need it & no additional ingredients needed

VERSATILE & CUSTOMIZABLE

- Ease inventory management with highly versatile products that work across the menu and dayparts

REDUCED OIL USAGE

- Par-Fried chicken products use 6% less oil* than fresh, Back-of-House prepared

*Based on an internal Tyson study of Cooked 10 filets per batch 100 filets of Tyson Par-Fry and BOH filets for testing, 3 replications using soybean

FOOD SAFETY

LONGER SHELF LIFE

- Up to 1-Year shelf-life when stores frozen. Reduces spoilage concerns

COOKS FROM FROZEN

- No slack out process needed prior to cook

REDUCES RISKS OF CROSS-CONTAMINATION

- No need to handle fresh, raw chicken, or worry about purge

GREAT FLAVOR

FRESHLY-MADE FLAVOR & APPEARANCE

- Makes it easy to create delicious, customizable dishes

EVENLY BREADED

- Delivers a consistent crispy, crunchy eating experience every time

OPTIMIZED PERFORMANCE

- Par-fry breading system is optimized to recon in fryer for even color, texture and breading adherence

CONSUMER TESTED, ON-TREND FLAVORS

- Appeals to a broad audience with consumer-favorites
